HCTD program for San Diego

(All sessions are in the Manchester Grand Hyatt)

Friday, November 21

8:00-9:15 a.m. (George Bush) E-Health: Information and Support

9:30-10:45 a.m. (George Bush) Envisioning the Future of Networked Information Resources: A Communication Perspective

12:30-1:45 p.m. (Madeline C) Theoretical Applications of Human Communication and Technology

12:30-1:45 p.m. (Molly A) UnCONVENTIONal Ideas in Technology and Education

2:00-3:15 p.m. (Elizabeth D/E) Top Papers Panel UnCONVENTIONal Human Communication and Technology Research

3:30-4:45 p.m. (Elizabeth D/E) Human Communication and Technology Business Meeting

Saturday, November 22

8:00-9:15 a.m. (Windsor C) New Media and Internet Sites: Use and Abuses

8:00-9:15 a.m. (Edward C) UnCONVENTIONal Cultural Perspectives: From Robots to Internet Uses to Nollywood

9:30-10:45 a.m. (Windsor C) Unconventional Grieving: Technologically Mediated Fan Culture

1:00-2:30 p.m. (Elizabeth Foyer) Scholar to Scholar Session

3:30-4:45 p.m. (Windsor C) Top Student Papers Panel: UnCONVENTIONal Uses of Technology

3:30-4:45 p.m. (Molly B) unCONVENTIONal Connections in a Culture of Convergence

5:00-6:15 p.m. (Windsor C) "Let's Get It On": Romance on the Internet

6:30-7:45 p.m. (Windsor C) Think outside the box: the innovative use of new communication technology and social changes in China

Sunday, November 23

8:00-9:15 a.m. (Windsor C) Historical Ponderings of UnCONVENTIONal Technology: From Marconi to Floorwaxers to Gmail

12:30-1:45 p.m. (Windsor C) Using the Internet to Serve Relationships and Groups: Unconventional Approaches and Practices in Studying the Internet's Influence on Romantic Relationships and Group Identity

2-3:15 p.m. (Manchester D) Exploring Facebook: Theories and Perceptions

2:00-3:15 p.m. (Windsor C) unCONVENTIONal Interaction: Studying Communication in Second Life

3:30-4:45 p.m. (Windsor C) CMC: Interpersonal Issues, Theories, and Measurements

Monday, November 24

8:00-9:15 a.m. (Mohsen A) Rhetorical Theory and Presentation Technology: A 21st-Century Perspective

9:30-10:45 a. m. (Mohsen A) SecondLife: Virtual Identities

11:00 -12:15 (Mohsen A) Massive behaviors: Using the Virtual World Exploratorium to Test Communication Theories Within a Social Online Game